HOUSE.

REPEALED.

Mr. SHURLOCK introduced and had passed a bill repealing the act passed this session creating a law library in Beaver county, stating that this act was passed against his earnest protestations, at the instance of the Beaver county bar and the earnest solicitation of Senator Rutan, but now the general sentiment of his constituents demanded its repeal.

Mr. WHITE moved to consider the joint resolution for final adjournment on the 10th inst., which was lost, yeas 56, nays 36, it requiring two-thirds to suspend the orders.

ODD FELLOWS.

After other resolutions and business, Mr. SCHNATTERLY, (Democrat,) obtained the unanimous consent to introduce a concurrent resolution adjourning the House from next week, till Thursday evening, May 18th, which he explained was to accommodate the Grand Encampment of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania, to whom the House some time ago granted the use of its hall on the 16th, 17th and 18th instant, for their annual meeting.

SMART WORK.

This opened the door to amendments of which Mr. STRANG (Republican) took advantage. He moved as a substitute that when the Legislature adjourn on May 16th it be "sine die." This placed the question in the control of the majority, where the Republicans wanted it.

Messrs. SCHNATTERLY, HALL and ELLIS (Democrats) pronounced this an unworthy trick by which to place the question of final adjournment in the hands of the Governor.

Mr. BOILEAU (Democrat) moved an indefinite postponement, which, after a lengthy and excited discussion, was disagreed to: Yeas, 40, all Democrats; nays 51, all Republicans.

Mr. STEELE (Democrat) offered an amendment substituting an adjournment from Friday noon till Monday evening.

Mr. STRANG then called the previous question, under the operation of which Mr. Steele's amendment was voted down by a party vote. Mr. Strang's amendment for final adjournment on May sixteenth passed almost unanimously. Yeas, 95; nays, 3, viz: Boileau, Ellis and Skinney, Democrats.

WASHINGTON, May 3, 1871.

HAYTI AND SAN DOMINGO.

A special says that the Haytien Minister has been authorized by his government to state that Hayti does not desire longer to control the Dominican Republic, but that their only object is to establish a boundary line between Hayti and Dominica. It would be pleased if the boundary line could be guaranteed by the Government of the United States. The Haytien Minister here has had the report of the San Domingo Commissioners translated in the French language, with a view of distributing it in that form in Hayti and Europe.

THE WEATHER.

Synopsis for the last twenty-four hours: The barometer continues to fall slowly on the Pacific coast with brisk south westerly winds. The lowest pressure is now in southern Indiana. The barometer has risen slowly on the upper lakes and the extreme eastern States. It has varied somewhat in the Middle and Southern States, but it is now falling. The temperature has fallen very decidedly from Iowa southward to the Gulf and eastward to the Atlantic. It has risen in the South Atlantic with increasing southwest winds. Brisk and high north-east winds have prevailed during the day on all the lakes.

Probabilities.—It is probable that the storm will continue on the lakes, followed on Thursday on the upper lakes by increasing winds and clearing weather. Cool and rainy weather is probable for the Atlantic Coast. Fresh north-easterly winds will probably be experienced in the lower Mississippi Valley.

CONNECTICUT.

The Legislature.

HARTFORD, May 3.—The Legislature convened to-day. The House chose Hon. E. H. Bugbee of Kellingly Speaker and H. C. Welch of Danbury and G. H. Cowell of Waterbury, clerks—all Republicans. A joint committee on the canvass of votes for State officers was raised to whom was referred the report of the board of canvassers and the petition of the presiding officers of town meetings in New Haven, Enfield and Cheshire praying that evident errors in the returns from those towns be corrected.

In the House a debate arose on the resolution giving the committee power to send for persons and papers in order fully to investigate the facts about these returns claimed to be erroneous. The Democrats opposed the resolution on the ground that the Convention is unconstitutional. The power will probably be granted and the Legislature adjourn until next week to allow the committee time for its investigations and to report who have received the majority of the votes cast for Governor, and other officers not yet declared elected.

NEW ORLEANS.

Robbed.

WIND STORM.

Last evening a violent storm of wind and rain passed over this city. For over fifty miles above the storm struck the steamer Pargoud, carrying off her chimney, and staving her forward pilot house and roof and deck. The Enterprise, five miles below Plaquemine, lost her chimneys. She reports having passed four boats lying on the bank with their chimneys gone. The Leonidas for Cincinnati, twelve miles above Baton Rouge lost her chimneys, escape pipe and wheel-house. The Kellogg and Pike lost their chimneys. Other disasters are probable. The oldest river men say they never witnessed such a violent storm.

Important Trade Movement.

ST. LOUIS, May 3.—There is a movement on foot here among the prominent merchants, bankers and capitalists, to organise an association in the interest of the cotton and sugar producers, with the design of controlling at least a part of this trade. The movement contemplates a bank in that direct interest, with a capital of half a million or more, the existence of which has only leaked out accidentally. It is called the "draft," and meetings are held with closed doors. The members now already number close on to fifty thousand, are chiefly artisans and laboring classes. The object is to organize favorable to working classes. Branch societies have been established in almost all the large cities of the Union.

PERFUMERS' POW-WOW.

The importers of perfumery and fancy articles held a meeting yesterday, and protested against Commissioner Pleasanton's recent decision that wholesalers must stamp bottles because he thought an unbroken package within the meaning of the law meant a case as it passed the Custom House.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

In the House of Commons to-day, Jacob Bright member from Manchester, moved the second reading of a bill relating to public meetings and in a speech in support of the bill used all the cold and well known arguments in its favor.

Mr. Boureri member for Kilmarnock, spoke in opposition to the measure repeating the veteran objections to the exercise of female suffrage.

Mr. Gladstone followed in a speech of some length. He said he was not prepared to sustain the measure, for he was disinclined to involve womanhood in the trying scenes and turbulent excitements of elections. He preferred the Italian idea of female suffrage, founded on property, but exercised by proxy. He was opposed to the bill in its present shape, but ready to consider favorably any for the same object. Lord John Manners, member for North Leicestershire, was puzzled to discover the grounds of Gladstone's opposition, and said the scenes at elections were easily avoidable by the same means as have already enabled the members of Parliaments to vote.

Mr. Hereford Hope, member for Cambridge University, opposed the extension of the suffrage to females as an outrage upon womanhood.

Mr. Playfair, member for Edinburgh and St. Andrew's Universities, spoke in favor of woman suffrage. A vote was then taken, resulting in a majority of 69 against the bill.

CHICAGO.

The Cheney Case.

CHICAGO, May 3.—The eclesiastical court for the trial of the Rev. Charles E. Cheney, assembled at the Episcopal cathedral this morning. It will be remembered that the defendant is now under sentence of suspension from his ministerial functions because of omission of the word "Regenerate" from the Baptismal service and that the present Court assembles at the call of the Bishop to try Mr. Cheney for alleged contumacy and disregard of the sentence found by the former Court and promulgated by the Bishop. The presentment was read by Judge Otis, of counsel for the prosecution. Mr. Melville Fuller announced that Messrs. George W. Thomson and M. B. Rich and himself appeared for the respondent, and read a paper objecting to the jurisdiction of the court. The paper reviewed former proceedings and contended that they and the sentence were void, because conducted by a tribunal of four instead of five Presbyters. It is asserted and pronounced that this was but a proceeding for contempt, and that it was unheard of for one court to assume the jurisdiction to punish contempt committed against the proceedings of another court; that the Bishop could not punish because limited in that regard by Diocesan law. It adverted to the inconsistency of the eclesiastical system of the church in this country, which permitted a presbyter who punished in one diocese for what was not an offense in another, yet made all sentences binding everywhere. A general objection was entered to the jurisdiction of the court to try, reserving however all jurisdictional rights of the respondent and not entering his appearance for any other purpose. Judge Otis claimed that the paper submitted by Mr. Fuller could not be entertained, there being no appearance upon the part of the respondent. Brief arguments followed pro and con, after which Mr. S. Corning Judd, counsel for the prosecution called attention to the fact that Mr. Fuller's paper was not presented by counsel upon any written request from Mr. Cheney. He wished the gentlemen to avow their authority, and appear in unqualified appearance or to make none at all.

Mr. Fuller declined to add to or change in any respect the paper presented. The Court decided that as it was not apparent that the gentlemen who presented the paper were advocates and proctors appearing at the request of the respondent, the paper could not be received. Mr. Fuller then retired from the room. Judge Otis then read the citation. Mr. Cheney's name was thrice called without response from either the reverend gentleman or any representative. A plea of contumacy was then entered as proposed by the canon. The trial then proceeded on the affirmative testimony. Evidence was offered that Mr. Cheney, since sentence of suspension had been passed upon him, had officiated as a priest of the Episcopal Church, and had administered the sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's supper. Messrs. Otis and Judd made arguments for the prosecution that Mr. Cheney was guilty of contumacy and should be degraded from the Priesthood. The court then adjourned till to-morrow morning when in all probability a decision will be rendered.

THE SCANLAND MURDER.

The Grand Jury of our Circuit Court have published a card explaining their action in not finding a bill of indictment against Leonard for the killing of Dr. Scanland. They assert that the panel of the Grand Jurors was not filled in an unusual way as has been charged, and deny a statement that the jury heard witnesses on the behalf of defendant, and state that the jury did to the best of their ability patiently and carefully examine, under oath, all witnesses who were known to have been present at or near the place where Dr. S. was killed. After the testimony of all the witnesses had been heard, the Statutes of Illinois concerning homicide and murder, and two decisions of the Supreme Court of this State bearing on the right of self defense, were read to the jury. Thereupon the case was calmly discussed by the jury, after which a motion was made by some member of the jury that a true bill be found against Leonard, which motion was put by the foreman and only one (a) for out of twenty-three voted for it. We stated then conscientiously under our oaths on evidence and law, and believing that we did right and know of no reason for changing our action. Just before the adjournment of the jury a motion was made that Leonard be discharged from custody which was unanimously carried. Such we are informed is often done and parties discharged before a report is made to Court. There was nothing unusual in this.

THAT EXTRA SESSION.

It is understood that Governor Palmer has decided to convene the Illinois Legislature in Extraordinary Session on the 24th of May. The call will probably include the general appropriation bill; the penitentiary bill; the State house bill; fee salary bill; revenue bill or bills to relase tax sales and deeds, and perhaps the river improvement bill and the subject of public parks in Chicago.

REPORTED.

It is currently reported and generally believed that President Grant this morning signed the pardon of James Geary, recently convicted here of fraud under the internal revenue laws. He has been confined about two months at Joliet, having been sentenced to imprisonment for one year and to pay a fine of two thousand dollars.

WILKESBARRE.

Alarming Fire.

WILKESBARRE, May 3.—An alarming fire occurred here last night, at one o'clock threatening the well known Valley House. It began about fifteen minutes after ten o'clock, in a stable in the rear of the hotel. The fire destroyed a dozen or so stables and outbuildings, and several times the hotel roof and offices were on fire, but by strenuous exertions the conflagration was prevented from spreading.

READING, PA.

Extensive Fire.

READING, May 3.—The extensive machine shop and a portion of the tube works of Seybert, McManus & Company in this city were destroyed by fire last night, the fire originating about ten o'clock P. M., from one of the lap welding furnaces. Besides the machinery, a large quantity of tubes and flues in process of finishing were destroyed or damaged. About one hundred feet of one of the side walls of the machine shop fell in. The losses are heavy and will probably reach 70,000 or 100,000 dollars, mostly covered by insurance.

CHARLESTON.

Tax-Payers' Convention.

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 3.—The people nearly everywhere in this State have this week held meetings, and chosen delegates to the Tax-payers' Convention, which meets in Columbia on Tuesday next. The general sentiment seems to be adverse to anything like repudiation of the bonds already issued under form of law. The Convention will favor a minority representation.

BALTIMORE.

Revenue Frauds.

BALTIMORE, May 3.—Supervisor Fulton is investigating the alleged revenue frauds involving over a million dollars. Thus far the testimony shows that a large amount of illicit whisky was put on the market through the connivance of certain revenue officers, who demanded and received considerable sums of money to suppress information concerning the frauds.

LATE AMERICAN BALLADS.

"THE AMERICAN BOY'S VERY LAST REQUEST."

Give my box and string to brother,
Mamma, when I'm dead;
When the funeral notion puts me,
In my little bed,
If the job's like to throw him
Into fits, and bring me home,
Let him get some boy to show him
How the old thing works.

Tell our neighbor that the tin hen,
I annexed by his rips,
Didn't finally rave and moan when
I passed in my chips;
Though your son forgives him, few know
How he fired a shed
Full of things to step my—you know
How I mean dead.

WHEN YOUR CHEAP DIVORCE IS GRANTED.

When your cheap divorce is granted,
Mother, and you leave the west,
Shall I stay with you or father?
Tell me, mother, which is best?
"He'll be much surprised, I fear me,
When he knows what you have filed,
And unless you hover near me,
He'll appropriate your child.

Mother, if the move was needful;
If the home you've sold was sheared so long, at last has bred an Incompatibility
If you'll be his wife no longer,
When returning from the West,
Which am I to live with longer?
Tell me, mother, which the best?

PETROLEUM at Antwerp, 47½.

GOLD closed in New York on yesterday at 111¼@111¾.

HON. JUDGE BUFFINGTON, of Kittanning, Pa., has resigned the President Judgeship of that judicial district, on account of ill health. His resignation took effect yesterday.

THE prompt and energetic action of the Republican members of the House, in our State Legislature succeeded in frightening the Democratic Senate into breaking up the dead lock. This was effected without any concessions, and will have weight in the future.

GREATNESS has unquestionably its disadvantages; at all events if the Archbishop of Paris is an illustration. From the London Telegraph we learn that the priests arrested in Paris have been offered their liberty, provided they will pay the price set opposite their names. At the head of the list received is the name of the Archbishop, who is required to hand over the sum of twenty thousand pounds. A number of other names are on the list, but none reach higher in amount than eight thousand, and some as low as four thousand pounds. As yet, however, no one has paid—high or low.

THE DEFALCATION of Gen. Lawrence, the pension agent in New York, arose through the neglect of the Assistant Treasurer in New York, strictly enforcing the rules laid down in the circulars issued by the Department. These rules require that no check shall be paid without it is drawn to the order of a creditor. This rule required pension agents to establish the identity of the party on whose order it was drawn, and to avoid the difficulty it became a custom to draw the check to the order of the pension agent. It is said that it was in this way General Lawrence drew his checks, and that in this way the opportunities arose for heavy defalcations.

FROM present appearances there is very little probability of the women of the District of Columbia acquiring a right to vote for a long time, even should the ultimate decision of the Courts be in their favor. Their actions are brought in the Circuit Court of the District, from which there will unquestionably be an appeal, no matter how the cases may be decided. This will carry them to the United States Supreme Court, which has enough business already before it, to keep it busy for two or three years. The next Presidential campaign therefore, will not witness women voters, and whether any in the future will, remains as yet very improbable.

THE TAMMANY ADMINISTRATION has discovered a new way to reduce taxation. The tax levy last year was over seven mills, while it has been fixed by the present administration at the rate of about six mills. This is a decided reduction of one mill, so far as the actual figures are concerned. But while reducing the levy the Tammany Ring has not provided for very heavy expenses that have been authorized and which must be met by a direct tax at some time or other. It is estimated that had provision been made for these authorized expenses, the tax levy would not have been less than eleven mills. In this way Democracy has endeavored in New York to deceive the people, and has failed. This last session of the New York Legislature has been so terribly corrupt that no man can be deceived in the future by Democratic cries of reform.

THE monthly debt statement, showing a reduction during the month of April of $6,124,653.13, is a little below the average. But it is enough. It shows a steady and continued reduction month after month, that, although it may vary slightly in amount, is still more than sufficient to satisfy our people that the work of reducing the National Debt is being actively pushed. The total amount of reduction since March 1st, 1869, is $204,754,413.09. These figures are powerful arguments for the coming campaign, and, we think, may not be blotted out by the hypocritical asseverations of the Democratic party over the reconstruction measures. They are a full answer also to the charges brought against the Republican party of corruption and extravagance, and when placed side by side with the Democratic Administration of New York, need no comment.

THE CHIEF OF POLICE of St. Louis, James McDonough, has issued an address for a more perfect organization of the detective department in all parts of the country. He bases his proposition on the idea that detective organizations should not be local, but general. That a crime committed in New York finds less difficulty in the concealment of the offender should he be able to reach some distant city of the Union, and that efficient local organizations have the tendency to aid distance in preventing the arrest and punishment of the criminal. To avoid this, he urges that instead of the detective force being a disjointed organization, that it should work in harmony all over the Union by a chain of rapid communication and action by combined rule and cypher. To effect this object he proposes a convention of the chiefs of the police force from all parts of the Union for the purpose of devising and adopting a code of rules and regulations. The idea is most certainly one well worthy of being put to the test. Anything that is calculated to suppress the great amount of crime that is being daily perpetrated is worthy of grave consideration, and we know of nothing so well calculated to remove the petty jealousies that now exist between the heads of the detective force, in our different cities, than would be such a convention. Much good would arise from it and we hope it will be carried into immediate effect.

THE REPUBLICAN members of the New York legislature of the late session, have issued a card calling attention to some of the most prominent legislative enactments passed by that body. Starting out with the fraudulent counting out of Twombly and the counting in of Cary, it presents a series of gross outrages on the people, never before surpassed in iniquity by any State legislature. The repeal of the Registry law, in order that fraud and crime may run riot at election was practically effected, and by this one blow to the citizens of New York City, the ballot boxes are placed almost exclusively in the hands of the Democratic roughs and ruffians. A blow was also made at the Common school system, and the control thereof taken from the people and put into the hands of the Mayor. Hereafter the people are to have little voice in the management of the schools to which they send their children. Education is not considered a very beneficial plaything for young Democrats. These two acts alone are sufficient to array every honest and reflecting man against the party who carried the measures. The report on the Canal debt, the immense deficits, the outrageous financial burthens imposed, the fraud, corruption and perjury, that gave the Democrats control, might all be passed over. But these two acts—depriving the citizens of protection from roughs at ballot boxes, and depriving the people of the management of the common schools, should unite the Republican party as a unit, against the torrent of outrage and injustice that Democracy desires to commit, and of which the two named are samples.

FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT.

The New York World is certainly either growing old and feeble, or it is playing with its own expressed convictions, and trying to ascertain just how far it can go to prove its own assertions absolutely incorrect. It has professed to take the position that the reconstruction measures were not hereafter to be an issue of the Democracy. In support of its assertion that the South was drifting into that determination, it publishes the following from the Selma, (Ala.,) Times:

After mature consideration, we have come to the conclusion that we must enter upon the contest of 1872 with such a declaration of principles as our Democratic friends of Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, and of the Northwestern States may agree upon in National Convention. They should be untrammelled by the Southern or New England States, to whom most of our late national troubles and animosities are attributable. The middle and Western States must be trusted, and whatever their delegates in convention may agree upon we think we can safely say that the Southern people will heartily support. If they are satisfied that the fifteenth amendment for the present be acquiesced in, and not be disturbed, so be it. For the success of the Democracy in 1872 is of vastly more importance to us than the repeal of all the amendments. As objectionable as they may be, yet the success of the Democracy will alleviate, if it does not relieve, our oppressions and sufferings under the rule of the Radical party, and a defeat of our party will embolden our oppressors—the Constitution makers and breakers—and aggravate our condition greatly.

We take this extract from the World just as it is published in that journal, and not italicised by us. After mature consideration the Selma Times has come to the conclusion that the Fifteenth Amendment for the present must be acquiesced in and not disturbed. As with the Mobile Register to which we referred in a late issue, there can be but one interpretation placed on this sentence, and that is, that as soon as Democracy gets into power it will endeavor to undo the reconstruction measures. There is no other meaning to be attached to the italicised words in the extract quoted. This, however, is very far from contradicting Senator Morton, and the platform he laid down. On the contrary it confirms just what he asserted was true. But all we desire to say on this point "at present" is, that the Democracy cannot halt in that way. Their platform must go further than to last only so long as the campaign, and then be pulled down to erect one directly the reverse of that which was promised during the election. The Times means just what it says. Democracy will endorse acquiescence in the Fifteenth Amendment during the campaign, but if successful, will endeavor to nullify all the reconstruction measures.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

A MANUAL OF ANCIENT HISTORY, from the Earliest Times to the Fall of the Western Empire. By George Rawlinson, M. A., Camden Professor of Ancient History in the University of Oxford. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York.

Few works embody such valuable matter in the compass of one volume as this one. It is a mine of information relative to the early ages of the world for the student, in giving him information which would involve much time to obtain through other channels. The great events embraced in the history of Chaldea, Assyria, Medïea, Babylonia, Lydia, Pheoenicia, Syria, Judaea, Egypt, Carthage, Persia, Greece, Macedonia, Parthia and Rome are grouped together in language evincing a discriminating and elevated tone. The latest contributions to a better understanding of certain events are interwoven into the work. It will be a valuable addition to every library, and in addition to its usefulness as a literary work, it also serves the purpose of confirming the historical statements of the Scriptures. We commend the work to every student of history.

OUR GIRLS. By Dio Lewis, A. M., M. D., President of the Normal Institute for Physical Education, etc., Boston. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York.

Anything from Dio Lewis is apt to attract attention, and especially on such a theme as "Our Girls." The work contains much valuable information, and upon subjects, too, which ought to be known, and which the Doctor deals with a nice discrimination rarely excelled. Almost everything in the range of everyday life, are vividly brought to light. The numerous incidenss brought to notice, show too plainly the follies of the gentle sex, and the need of educating the young women of these days to a higher standard.

MECHANISM IN THOUGHT AND MORALS. An address delivered before the Phi Beta Kappa Society of Harvard University by Oliver Wendell Holmes. Published by James R. Osgood & Co., Boston.

This essay is full of suggestive thoughts on questions of moment to the student, in which the relations of the brain to the soul as an instrument of thought are discussed with signal ability. Like all the writings of this brilliant author, the essay abounds with massive thought, however much one may differ with him relative to duty. It bears the impress of this singularly gifted man, and is worthy of attention by thinking minds.

WESTWARD BY RAIL: The New Route to the East. By W. M. Rae. Published by D. Appleton & Company, New York.

Books of this character are multiplying so fast that much of the relish first begotten has passed away. Nevertheless there is so much to commend in this volume that our readers will do well to read it. The simple fact that it was written by an English traveler of much intelligence, should commend the work, and what is not usually the case with foreigners, the author has been impartial in his criticisms and observations. The "uncovering" of Mormonism paints a fearful picture of degredation and vice. The book is well worth reading.

In this volume we have a vivid picture of life presented, in "Crown Jewels," full of romance and poetry. Love affairs of Tysolesan noblemen and Spanish maidens are presented showing the dashing life of Mexico, the plot of the story hangs upon a page of history allied with the names of Maximilian, and Charlotta. The author illustrates the warmth of a Southern writer.

THE DESCENT OF MAN and SELECTION in RELATION to SEX. By Charles Darwin, M. A., etc., etc. Published by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

It must be conceded that this book is not wholly made up with bold assertions, but logical facts are interwoven into the discussion. Throughout the entire work great truths are discussed from a natural scientific stand, exhibiting the culture and vast researches of the distinguished writer. Startling as his positions are, the principles upon which he builds his grand theory are not invulnerable, as bold assumptions do not demonstrate truths. Careful analysis of the whole argument will convince the reader that the discussion is wholly from the side of natural history, and a total ignoring of the spiritual nature. It is truthfully said that natural history has no more to do with the moral sense than of the Trinity. The main conclusion arrived at in this work by Darwin is that man is descended from some lowly-organized form, and he assumes that there can hardly be a doubt that we are descended from barbarians! Then follows his opinion that he would as soon be descended from the monkey as from a savage that delights to torture humanity. Man, he argues, still bears in his bodily frame the indellible stamp of his lowly origin. Humiliating as the view may be, Mr. Darwin has shown distinguished ability in the presentation of his peculiar views, and it would be well to carefully examine them. Withal the care exercised by the author in recognizing a personal God and religion, purely from a scientific point, yet his views will be used by the assailants of Christianity and turned to promote infidel notions. The work is a valuable contribution to scientific literature.

THE FRANCO-PRUSSIAN WAR IN A NUTSHELL.—A Daily Dairy of Diplomacy, Battles and War Literature. By Melville D. Landon. Published by G. W. Carleton, New York. For sale by J. W. Pittock, Pittsburgh.

It would appear at first thought that a work of this kind was uncalled for, because af the full details published by the press, but we have here embodied a condensed account of the whole struggle, in which the author has shown taste and discisive action, and is by no means dull reading. Its accuracy deserves commendation.

THE REVELATION OF JOHN, with Notes, Critical, Explanatory and Practical, designed for both pastor and people. By Rev. Henry Cowles, D.D. Published by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

These "Notes," like the preceding volumes of the author, are eminently practical, and calculated to be a help to the student. In the interpretation of this difficult book, Dr. Cowles has advanced views that may subject him to adverse criticism, but in the main his views are generally entertained by Protestants that the Book of Revelation was writen to encourage Christians who were enduring sore trials, to be patient and hopeful. Dr. Cowles rejects the idea which makes days in prophecy mean years, and adds reasons to disprove the theory. It is an admirable book for the Sunday School and biblical scholars.

THE TRADE CIRCULAR ANNUAL for 1871. Published by Leypoldt & Holt, New York. For sale by R. S. Davis, & Co., Pittsburgh.

Valuable information is embodied in this Trade Circular, in which the number of books published in the United States during the year 1871, and also, a list of the principal books published in England; a Publishers, Manufactures and Importers Directory, and alphabetical list of nearly eight hundred articles suitable for sale; also a summary of American and English novelties and miscellaneous literary and trade information. For a book of general reference of everything pertaining to the trade we know of nothing equal to it.

THE WORKS OF MISS YONGE. Published by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

This gifted author has attained an enviable notoriety in the literary world, and years her works have ranked in the better class of fiction. There is a purity of style and elevated tone throughout all her writings, which renders them acceptable to the lovers of a pure literature. These enterprising publishers have just commenced the publication of a new and uniform edition of all her works, bound in showy cover and printed on good paper. Those of the series published are as follows: The Heir of Redcliffe," "Heartsease," "Daisy Chain." The merits of these works are well known by readers of fiction, and need no further commendation from us, more than to say this handsome edition is sold very cheap, and is admirably suited for literary purposes.

There is something peculiarly cheerful about this book, which purports to be the autobiography of an aged New England lady. Views of every-day life are given on the bright side, and even common place things have something of a charm that is more than ordinary. Lessons of cheerfulness and charitableness are also taught, which the reader cannot help feeling contagious. There is a spirituale element that has a Swedenborgian flavor. It ought to be a favorite of many for its sunny pictures of life.

ON REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT and PERSONAL REPRESENTATION. By Simon Sterne. Published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia.

Much attention is called to this subject, or relating to representation in some form or other, and from recent efforts at constitutional conventions and legislative bodies, the question is likely ere long to be discussed pretty freely. In this volume Mr. Sterne has presented the question in a very clear and convincing manner, and the theory of representation in a somewhat new form. Chapter fourth, on the proper plan of representation, contains the author's system, which deserves careful consideration, and in fact, the entire work is worthy of the same.

THE TWO BROTHERS, and Other Poems. By Edward Henry Bickersteth, M. A., author of "Yesterday, To-day and Forever." Published by Robert Carter & Brothers, New York.

That grand poem, "Yesterday, To-day and To-morrow," placed Mr. Bickersteth in the front rank of living poets, and many a Christian heart rejoiced while reading its noble lines. These poems, however, are not equal to that poem, but are a collection written at different intervals, covering a period of many years, and are collected in book form for the perusal of admiring friends in this country. While some of the pieces are not of a superior order, there are others of merit, and worthy of this excellent poet.

It is difficult to judge intelligently of the merits of a work in two parts, and the first volume only out. It indicates however, that the story is worth publishing, and the publishers have faith in the venture. Part first—"Adversity," reads well, and seems to be well arranged, and we shall expect the second part will be worthy of the first for graceful style.

ZELL'S POPULAR ENCYLOPEDIA AND UNIVERSAL DICTIONARY, T. Elwood Zell, Philadelphia.

We have frequently already, from time to time, referred to the excellent character of this work, which has been issued in numbers. Now, however, it is completed and can be procured, bound in two large quarto volumes, from the publisher, or any of his numerous agents. It is, we believe, the largest work of the kind ever attempted by a Pennsylvanian publisher, and has been produced at great expense and under most careful and capable supervision. Concerning its merits and uses we can but repeat what we have already said, that it fills a place in statistical literature, hitherto unoccupied, mid way between the large many volumed encyclopedias and the terse and pars. graphic dictionaries; and, while it is doubtless not without some errors, we believe it to be as nearly correct in all cases as it is possible for works of such magnitude to be, while the information it contains is so concisely yet fully given as to leave little if anything to be desired. The price of this work renders it possible now for very many families to be provided with a library of useful reference, who have hitherto been debarred from possessing so useful and necessary an adjunct of the cultivated domestic circle.

Murder Most Foul.

[From the Texas County (Mo.) Pioneer.

Never during our residence in Texas county have we seen the citizens in a state of such excitement as that created by the murder of Mr. Thomas Barnum, who was instantly killed on Thursday, while plowing in his field, by some scoundrel as yet unknown to the public.

The facts, as we gather them from the relatives and neighbors of the deceased, are about as follows: About 3 o'clock P. M., on Thursday, Mr. Barnum was plowing alone in his field, the remotest end of which is little short of half a mile from and entirely out of sight of his house. While in this part of it, near the fence, finishing an end of one furrow, and about to commence another, some miscreant from behind the fence, not fifteen yards distant, sent a bullet through his body, from the effects of which he was evidently killed instantly.

The first intimation his family had that anything had happened to him, was his sister, (Mrs. Thompson) observing the horses apparently much frightened, rapidly running towards the house. She instantly called Jeff. Stephens, (a young employe of Mr. B.'s,) and together they went to the field, there to find Mr. Barnum dead. There first impression was that he was killed by his horses, but on raising him up, so much blood was discovered, together with the bullet that had done the fatal deed, that they knew that he must have been deliberately murdered.

On examining the fence corner near by, the mark of what is supposed to have been the rifle that did the deed was found; hazel brush was broken down inside the fence, so as to give the murderer a better view of his victim, and an imprint of a boot or shoe, evidently made as the man knelt to take good aim for the deadly work he so speedily and surely accomplished.

MR. BARNUM was forty nine years of age, a native of Allegheny county, New York, and came to this country about twenty years ago, where he has made, by his own unaided exertions, one of the prettiest and very best farms in our midst. He was esteemed as one of our very best citizens, and was particularly known as a good neighbor, and a man eminently noted for minding his own business and meddling with no one. There is scarcely a man in the county but what would sooner be suspected of becoming the victim of an assassin for real or supposed wrong inflicted. His own family and most intimate friends are not aware of his having had an enemy on earth.

THE Count of Chambord is generally believed in France to have been secretly in that country for some time past. He is said to be at the chateau of one of his adherents in La Vendee.

BISHOP DUPANLOUP, who has recently given in his adherence to the infallibility dogma, is bitterly censured and ridiculed for it by the liberal Catholic organs on the European Continent.

A YOUNG Saxon mechanic at Chemnitz has so perfected the needle gun that it can now be fired twenty-five times a minute. The cost of altering the needle guns now in use is quite significant.

AN enthusiastic Englishman has offered Count Bismarck two hundred thousand thalers for his country seat at Varzin, twice as much as it is worth; but Bismark has rejected the offer.

THE true reason why Victor Hugo resigned his seat in the French National Assembly was that General Ducrot grossly insulted him amidst the acclamations of the members of the Right.

FIVE years ago Eugene Rouher, the ex Minister of Louis Napoleon, was created honorary citizen by the municipality of Boulogne, where he was mobbed a few weeks ago by the furious populace.

THE Southern Railway, which runs from London to Dover, was last year an honorable exception to the other English lines as regards passenger smashing, having carried 9,500,000 persons without a single accident.

IN Bavaria, the other day, a preacher was sentenced to three months' imprisonment for heving traced with a cane in the snow the words, "King Louis, the man who ruins Bavaria." After he had been in prison two months, the King pardoned him.

A LONDON correspondent reports that the skirts of the Princess of Wales somehow caught fire when she was dressing for the banquet following the marriage of the Princess Louise, and although she sustained no very serious injury the shock had an injurious effect upon her health.

A MEDICAL authority writes: "Those who begin to smoke ought to smoke mild tobacco out of long clean pipes, for there is an art in smoking that raw hands will spoil their pipes or cigars, and not enable them, to the evident distress, not only of themselves, but also of those about them.

SHOWERS of good things are falling on Bismarck. A grateful country gives him $750,000 and the King of Bavaria has sent him the order of St. Hubert, with its decorations in diamonds. No doubt that something nice will come from St. Petersburg, as the Czar knows how to give presents.

THE Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria became very indignant when the citizens of Vienna appealed to him against the decision of the Cabinet that no celebration in honor of the German victories should be held. "We are in Austria, and not in Germany," he exclaimed, indignantly: "no, no, there shall be no celebration."

THE Emperor William was deeply moved when he received, on the 2d of March, the news that the treaty of peace had been ratified by the French National Assembly. After reading the despatch he whispered, with tears in his eyes, to his son, who was standing by his side, "This is the birthday of my mother, Louise!"

THE Princess Clotilde, eldest daughter of Victor Emmanuel and wife of Prince Napoleon, is said to be an exceedingly kind hearted and winning woman, and seems to be esteemed and liked by every one but her husband. A Geneva correspondent ascribes their disharmonies to the difference in their tastes and ages. He is in his 48th year, while she is only 28.

PHILARETE CHASLES, the French savant, has spent his whole fortune of over seven hundred thousand francs for purchasing what he believed to be autograph letters of distinguished men of former times, but which have since proved to be skillful forgeries. Despite his heavy losses he has steadily refused to give the names of the parties who swindled him so barely and systematically.

THEOPHILE GAUTIER, the renowned literary animal fancier, had at the beginning of the siege of Paris 150 cats, and at the capitulation discovered that his feline stock had been reduced to nine owing to the roving habits which made them a prey to the hungry population. Even of the nine, four had their tails shot away. Gautier is sorely troubled over his losses, as his love for cats, he says, passes the love of woman.

THE Associated railways of Germany on January 1st, 1871, consisted of 78 companies owning 19,146 miles of road against 17,178 miles on January 1st, 1870. Of these companies, 49 owning 11,835 miles of road, were in Germany, 24 owning 5,960 miles were in Austria and Hungary, and 5 owning 1,350 miles were in Holland During 1870, the German lines had built 884 miles of road, the Austro-Hungarian 1,013 miles, and the Dutch 70 miles, making a total of 1,967 miles.

BERLIN is highly tickled with the story of the manner in which the eldest boy of the Crown Princess demeaned himself when he met his grandfather the other day, at Wildpark. As soon as the Emperor came within proper distance this youthful Fritz saluted him with intense gravity, and stood to attention as rigidly as if he had been petrified. The Emperor called him familiarly by name and asked an affectionate question. His reply was another elaborate military salute, and a resumption on the boy's part of "attention." With a burst of laughter the old gentleman took his grandson in his arms, when at length the latter thought circumstances entitled him to merge discipline in affectionate demonstrations. He is very like what, in appearance, the Prince of Wales was at his age. He is spoken of as a very promising boy—honorable, studious and eager to excel. The second son, Henry, is a pretty boy, but rather pale and delicate.

M. HENRI DE ROCHEFORT has a manifesto in his journal Mot d'Ordre on "the Church and its treasures," in reference to the recent requisitions at Notre Dame. He says that he not only does not disavow the support he has given to this spoliation, but if he knew of any other treasure belonging to the clergy he would indicate it to the Commune. "Our eternal belief," he says, "is that Jesus Christ having been born in a stable, the only treasure that Notre Dame ought to possess is a bundle of straw. As for the goods of the Church, we do not hesitate to declare them national property, for the single reason that they proceed from the generosity of those to whom the Church has promised Paradise; and the promise of imaginary returns made to obtain a property is qualified as swindling by every code. * * * 'Your purse or hell'—such is in the present day the only programme of the Catholic clergy, and as the French nation no longer believes in hell, it is natural that, in case of need, it should take back the purse."

IMPORTANT TO THE RUPTURED.

If there is one thing more than another that requires skill and exactitude in the fitting, it is in the application of Trusses and appliances for hernia or rupture. If you will read over the health reports now and again, you will see cases reported "died of strangulated hernia." Now every one of these cases could have been relieved by the application of a proper truss. What is the value of a few dollars to the cost of a human life? Many people do not know where to get such appliances. We will tell you—Dr. Keyser, at 167 Liberty street, is the best place in the city—in fact, we can say without bias, in the country. Every kind of rupture can be relieved by him, and in many cases a thorough cure can be obtained. The Doctor has made the fitting of instruments for hernia the study of his life, and it ought to be a matter of satisfaction to the afflicted to know where perfect relief can be procured. A prevalent error on the part of very many persons is to mistake other appearances for rupture, which never need be the case by one skilled in the application and schooled in the anatomy of Rupture. Of a truth it is too serious an affliction to be in doubt about. Our readers will cut this out and remember the place. Dr. Keyser's, 167 Liberty street.

PREVENTINE MEDICATION.

A radical change has been introduced in the practice of medicine. Physicians have ceased to torture and prostrate their patients. Instead of pulling down, they build up; instead of assailing nature, they assist her. Cupping, leeching, blistering, venesection, calomel, antimony, stupifying narcotics, and rasping purgatives, once the favorite resources of the faculty, are now rarely resorted to even by the most dogmatic members of the profession. The old creed was that disease was something which must be expelled by violent artificial means, irrespective of the wear and tear of the vital organization in the process. The new creed recognizes the improvement of the natural health as essential to the cure of all local ailments Hence it is that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the most potent vegetable tonic that pharmacy has ever brought to the assistance of nature in her struggles with disease, has been cordially approved by practitioners of the modern school. It is pleasant to reflect that reason and philosophy have at last been victorious over the errors of the past, and that thousands, and tens of thousands, of human beings are alive and well to-day who would indubitably be mouldering in their graves had they been subjected to the nains and penalties which were deemed orthodox and indispensable thirty or forty years ago.

Preventive medication was scarcely thought of then; but now it is considered of paramount importance, and the celebrity of the standard invigorant, alterative and restorative of the age, (a title which Hostetter's Bitters have fairly earned by their long career of success,) is mainly due to its efficiency as a protective preparation.

A course of the Bitters is urgently recommended as a safe and certain antidote to intermittent and remittent fevers, diarrhea, dysentery, and other maladies.

NEW YORK, May 3, 1871.

Gold steady, with all business at 111¼@111¾. Loans were made at from 1 to 3 per cent.; at the close ⅜ of 1 per cent. was paid for the use of small lots. The clearings were $24,000,000. Exports to-day, $375,000. Governments opened dull and steady. Treasury awards of $2,000,000 were made at from 110.98 to 111.10. The market closed about ⅛ per cent. off opening prices. Stocks have been dull and heavy. Lake Shore and Reading being the only strong stocks on the list; the cliques tried hard to rally the market, but without success; parties in Rock Island and Northwestern stood up their stock and tried to sell, but as soon as they stopped bidding, prices dropped off; the market was heavy at the close, when the lowest prices of the day were current in some leading stocks. Money plentiful at from 4 to 6. Southern bonds quiet and firm.

APPLE BUTTER—Sales of prime, in crocks and kegs, at 7@8¾ per gallon.

ASHES—Common Soda, 3¾@4; refined do, 4¼; Pots 7¾@7¾; Pearls, 9@9¾.

APPLES—Season almost over; sales at $4@5 for fair to medium and $6.00@6.50 for prime to choice.

BUTTER—Continuesto arrive freely and with a supply considerably in excess of the demand, the market is weak and holders are all anxious to sell. We now quote at 15@18 for fair to prime and 20 for choice.

BROOM CORN—Is dull but unchanged, 4@5 cts per lb.

BEANS—Dull; $1.50@2.00 per bushel.

BEESWAX—Quoted at 28@30 cts.

CHEESE—Sales of new Ohio Cheese at 14@16, as to quality. New York State Goshen, 17¾@18.

CARBON OIL—Is quiet and unchanged; standard brands, 21@21½, in a jobbing way—small lots, 22¾@25.

CANDLES—Quoted at 12 cts for mould, and 10 for star.

CANNED GOODS—Tomatoes, $2.70@2.75 per dozen; peaches, $3.75 per dozen in 3-lb cans and $2.50 for 2's; Brandow's Corn, $2.75@3 per dozen.

CEMENT—Louisville, $2.50@2.75 per bbl; Johnstown, $2.25; Resendale, $4.00@4.50; Calcined Plaster, $4.50; Land Plaster, $3.50@3.75.

DRIED FRUIT—Apples continue dull with a good supply, particularly of the commoner grades—really prime bright apples are scarce; may be quoted at 6@7 cts. Peaches quiet and unchanged; 10@10½ for quarters; 11@12c for mixed, and 13@14 for halves.

EGGS—Continue dull, notwithstanding the receipts are comparatively light, from which it is evident that the demand has fallen off. Prices unchanged, 16@15 cts.

FLOUR—Is a shade firmer under the influence of late advices from the west, and it looks now as if the decline anticipated would not be realized. We continue to quote at $6.75@7 for fair to good spring extras; $7.25 for choice Minnesota baker's flour; $6.75@7.00 for good red winter wheat and $7.25@7.50 for white. Rye flour, for small lots in store, $6.00.

GRAIN—The market for Wheat is steady and the mills are taking all that offers at quotations. $1.38@1.43 for red, and $1.42@1.51 for white—we have sales reported at both of the outside quotations. Wheat has stiffened up in all the leading western markets within the past few days, and this of course, has not been without some influence here. Oats still reported dull but prices remain unchanged; we are reported sales of 1,500@1,800 bushels on wharf track at 58@59c—small sales in store at 60@62. Corn is quiet and unchanged; there is some little inquiry for car, and the market is almost bare; shelled may be quoted at 70 for mixed and 73@75 for prime yellow—in bulk; receipts are not large, and the supply in this market is light. Rye—we can report small sales at $1.00 a round lot may be quoted at $1.03@1.05. Barley quiet and unchanged, 80@85 for spring and 90@95 for fall.

GROCERIES—The market for Coffees continue weak, and our advices from New York are to the effect that large holders would make concessions in order to effect sales; stocks are increasing at all the leading coffee ports, and this is not without its effect on the market. Sugars continue strong, and as noted in our last report, both raws and refineds have advanced. New York Bulletin says: "The feeling is stronger than for months, and the offerings are greatly reduced, many holders having entirely withdrawn samples, and though there is nothing to warrant a quotation above 9¼@9⅜c for fair to good refining, these figures are inside and lowerthan a good many parcels could be reached. There appears to be no new stimulating influence merely an increase of confidence in the basis previously noted."

SYRUPS AND DRIPS—White Honey, 72; Havemyer & Sliders, 72; Silver Drips, 60; Lovering, 68; other grades, 45@50.

SUGARS—Choice New Orleans, 11¼; prime, 10¾ good, 10; fully fair, 10; Porto Rico Sugars 10¾@11¼; Cuba, 10@11; Demararas, 11¾@12¾.

Dry Goods.

NEW YORK, May 4.—The market is comparatively dull, yet prices have been well sustained in view of the extreme prices prevalent for raw materials. Printed cloths are made scarce by speculative purchasers, and are held at remunerative rates, viz: 7¾@7¾c. Prints are less active, but in view of the high rates, gray cloth holders are firm and no great clark work will come upon the market this fall below 11c, at least the prospect is that printers will try to establish an advance of another half or one quarter yard. Woolen wools offering are of the light passee styles, which sell at 10@10½c, but anything of merit in Middlesex commands 12c readily. Woolen laines are in limited request; the season for spring work is nearly closed, and at the ruling prices manufacturers have been unable to make any large profits nor will they be able to put their goods upon the market this autumn at any less cost. Worsteds are moving slowly if wool keeps so high they must put up the price to 23c per yard on prints and delaines; satinets and worsted cottons are shorter than usual in small quantities as required at uniform rates, and the same will apply to all other classes of silks; fancy and staple dress goods, domestic as well as foreign, are being closed out, as is usually the case towards the end of the season, at reduced rates.

RIVER NEWS.

A steady rain fell nearly all day yesterday and the prospects for a good navigable river are very encouraging—we should not be surprised to see a good coal boat stage within the next 48 hours.

Business was again rather slow at the landing yesterday, owing in part to the inclement weather. We are in hopes, however, that there will be an early improvement, and that our boatmen will have less difficulty in picking up a trip.

The Exchange is due from St. Louis. She will at once commence reloading for that point.

The Wauanita and Lorena are among the first boats due.

The Juniata, Capt. C. L. Brennan, is the regular packet for Cincinnati to-day, leaving promptly at 4 P. M. She is a large and commodious side-wheeler, and offers superior accommodations to passengers.

The Juniata will receive freight and passengers through to all points west and south of Cincinnati both by river and rail.

The Kate Putnam, Capt. Ed Evans, with Mr. Wm. Harbison in the office, has been converted to re-load for Nashville. She is the only boat in the port loading for the "City of Rocks."

Jackson Bros., of the steamer Oil Valley, have contracted with the various oil firms of this city to tow oil for eastern shipment from the Allegheny Railroad depot to that of the Connellsville. A railroad will be built from the depot to the river, so that oil can at once be immediately transferred from the steamer to the depot thereby saving any cost of hauling.

The St. Louis Republican, of Sunday, says: The Belle Vernon came down from St. Paul yesterday with a good freight, having had 500 bbls flour and 3,570 sacks of grain. She reshipped part of her freight South by the Dexter. She will take a tow of coal to one of the Ohio River. The Mary E. Poe came in from Cincinnati yesterday with a heavy freight. She had 500 bbls of coal on board, and a large quantity of freight for reshipment North. Suits to recover $1,796 70 for coal supplied to the Iron Mountain Railroad, will be in the United States District Court yesterday.

—Hugh and George Reid, late engineers of the W. R. Arthur, have accompanied from the decision of the Local Inspectors, Clark and Ralston, to the Supervising Inspector, Captain Hoxton, of Louisville. The license of the pilot was suspended for one year, and the other revoked.

—A Memphis special to the Cincinnati Commercial says: A coal barge at Island 39, partially loaded with coal, saved from the Simpson Horner sunken boats, was nearly wrecked in the storm yesterday, and is reported in a sinking condition.

—The iron steamer J. T. Moore is carrying flour up Red river at fifteen cents per barrel, and other freight in proportion. Cotton ahead of the same river is being carried at fifty to seventy-five cents per bale.

—The Cincinnati Commercial says: Captain Dravo will not return to Pittsburgh with the St. Charles until there is more water. In the meantime she can be chartered for picnic excursions.

—A St. Louis paper say: The Merrill went from Pittsburgh to St. Paul and back to St. Louis in twenty-two days, handling 1000 tons of freight.

—Total amount of claims filed against the Great Republic, $46,000.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ CONSUMPTION.

Its Cure and its Preventive.

BY J. H. SCHENCK, M.D.

Many a human being has passed away, for whose death there was no other reason than the neglect of known and indisputably proven means of cure. Those near and dear to family and friends are sleeping the dreamless slumber into which, had valuable remedies been timely used.

DR. JOSEPH H. SCHENCK'S SIMPLE TREATMENT,

Dr. Schenck has in his own case proved that wherever sufficient vitality remains, that vitality, by his medicines and his directions for their use, is quickened into healthful vigor.

In this statement there is nothing presumptuous. To the faith of the invalid is made no representation that is not a thousand times substantiated by living and visible works. The theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicines is as simple as it is unfailing. Its philosophy requires no argument. It is self-assuring, self-convincing.

The Sea-weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are the first two weapons with which the citadel of the malady is assailed. Two-thirds of the cases of consumption originate in dyspepsia and a functionary disordered liver. With this condition the bronchial tubes "sympathize" with the stomach. Here they respond to the nutrification of the food. Here then comes the culminating result, and the setting in, with all its distressing symptoms of

CONSUMPTION.

The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's noblest vegetable alteratives. They possess all the blood-searching, alterative properties of calomel, but, unlike calomel, they LEAVE NO STRONG BEHIND.

The work of cure is now beginning. The vitiated and mucuous deposits in the bowels and the alimentary canal generally. The liver, like a clock, is wound up. It arouses from its torpidity. The stomach and bowels, and the patient begins to feel that he is getting, at last,

A SUPPLY OF GOOD BLOOD.

The Sea-weed Tonic, in conjunction with the Pills, permeates the circulation with the food. Chylification is now progressing without its proper basis to sustain. Dyspepsia becomes painless, and the cure is seen to be at hand. There is no more headache, no exacerbation of the stomach. An appetite sets in.

Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given by any medical father to suffering mankind—Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its functions and to hasten and complete the cure. It enters at once upon its work. Nature can not be checked. It collects and ripens the morbific and diseased portions of the lungs. In the form of gatherings, it prepares them for expectoration. Then to the vitiated blood is the work relinquished, the rotten throne that it occupied is renovated and made new, and the patient, in all the dignity of regained vigor, steps forth to enjoy the manhood or womanhood that was GIVEN UP AS LOST.

The second thing is, the patients must stay in a warm room until they get well: it is almost impossible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased, but it must be prevented or a cure cannot be effected. Fresh air and riding out, especially in this section of the country, in the fall and winter season, are all wrong. Physicians will recommend that course lose their patients, if their lungs are badly diseased and yet, because they are in the house they must not get cold; they must walk about the room as much and as fast as the strength will bear, to get up a good circulation of the blood. The patients must keep in good spirits—be determined to get well. This has a great deal to do with the appetite, and is the great point to gain.

To despair of cure after such evidence of its possibility in the worst cases, and moral certainty in all others, is sinful. Dr. Schenck's personal attendment to the Faculty of his own cure was in these words:

"Many years ago I was in the last stages of consumption; confined to my bed, and at one time my physicians thought that I could not live a week; then, like a drowning man catching at straws, I heard of and obtained the prescription for what is now offer to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me. I seemed to see that I could feel them penetrate my whole system. They soon ripened the matter in my lungs, and I would spit up more than a pint of offensive yellow matter every morning for a long time.

"As soon as the fever began to subside, my cough, fever, pains and night sweats all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could keep from eating too much. I soon gained my strength, and have grown in flesh ever since.

"I was weighed shortly after my recovery," added the Doctor, "then looking like a mere skeleton; my weight was only ninety-seven pounds; my present weight is two hundred and twenty-five (225) pounds, and for years I have enjoyed uninterrupted health."

Dr. Schenck has discontinued his professional visits to New York and Boston. He or his son, Dr. J. H. Schenck, Jr., will continue to see patients at their office No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Resirometer will be charged $5. The Respirometer detects the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not.

The directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. Full these directions, and a kind Nature will do the rest, excepting that in some cases the Mandrake Pills are to be taken in increased doses the three medicines need no other accompaniments than the ample instructions that accompany them. First, create appetite. Of returning health hunger is the most welcome symptom. When it comes, as it will come, bathe the despairing at once be of good cheer. Good blood at once follows, the cough ceases, the night sweats abated. In a short time both of these morbid symptoms are gone for ever.

Dr. Schenck's medicines are constantly kept in the hands of thousands of families, and are administrative: the Mandrake pills are a standard preparation; while the Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure of coughs and colds, may be regarded as a psychotherapeutic against consumption in any of its forms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Sea-weed Tonic $1 50 a bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists and dealers. ap18-p5-TTHS

A Worthy Successor to Zach. Wainwright.

Our old time friend, Mr. Wm. M. Pearson, has been brought forward by his friends as a candidate for Select Council to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Zach. Wainwright. He will bring to the position of Councilman all the requisites of a city father, and will undoubtedly materially aid in the management of our city affairs. His extensive travels in other lands, where he has had an opportunity of witnessing the management of the largest cities in the globe, will be of great benefit to him and to our city.

The Drew Attack.

The victim whose head served as mark for a spittoon, particulars of which were given yesterday, was considerably improved yesterday morning. He stated his name was William Carter, instead of Williams, and that he was innocent of the gross charge against him, when a new information was made with this change in the name.

He then made an information against Drew for aggravated assault and battery. Mr. Drew was held in his own recognizance for a hearing.

Carter was committed to jail until he has recovered sufficiently to admit of a renewal of the hearing.

The Western Insurance Company.

This sterling old company announces its semi-annual dividend this morning, of $4 per share, which is another proof of its careful and successful management. The capital stock of the Western is $225,000, divided into 4,500 shares of $50 each. A dividend, therefore, of $4 per share is equal to eight per cent. This will not only be agreeable news to the stockholders, but will also be an additional guarantee to the patrons of the company of the continued good security afforded.

The company have removed from their old office on Water street, where they have been for twenty-two years, to the second floor of the new corner rooms on the second floor of the new and elegant building of the First National Bank on Wood street, corner of Fifth avenue. Mr. Alexander Nimick retains the Presidency of the company, with Capt. Wm. P. Herbert as Secretary, assisted by Mr. Earle A. Gardner. The directors are all well-known gentlemen, who by their large experience and practical business sagacity have succeeded in placing the Western in the foremost rank of our insurance companies. We must not forget to state that our genial friend Capt. George Neeld, is General Agent.

THE NEW BRIGADIER.

Col. McLanahan Successful.

Yesterday afternoon the election of a General for the Second Brigade was held at the new armory of the Grays on Fourth avenue. There was in attendance a goodly delegation of military men, and the "log rolling" for the position was quite spirited, but good feeling prevailed throughout. General Pearson conducted the exercises. As none but the Captains of the encampanies had a right to a vote, the election was disposed of in a short time and resulted in the selection of Colonel John McLanahan, by three votes over his competitor, Colonel Joseph Browne, four on the first ballot.

The fortunate candidate is a gentleman in every respect qualified and deserving, having won his spurs on the field in active campaigning, being thoroughly conversant with the requirements of the position. That he will make a good and popular officer is certain, and the Brigade under his management with the co-operation of his comrades, cannot fail to prosper.

REVENUE OFFICER IN TROUBLE.

Alleged Heavy Defalcation—Over $30,000 Missing—Action of the Authorities.

There is a Revenue Collector in the State who has gotten himself into trouble by irregularities in his accounts, and it is alleged that he has been defrauding the Government. The matter came up in the United States District Court yesterday morning, when District Attorney Swoope entered suits against the collector and his sureties. The alleged defaulter is Mr. Henry Guerner, who was collector of the Eighteenth district, eastern part of the State, combined the offices of collector and disbursing agent, and was elected in the first case for $100,000, and in the second for $10,000.

The bondsmen in the first are Messrs. H. L. Diffenbach, S. H. Peale, C. C. Noyes, Robert Crawford and Theodore Wright. The sureties for him in disbursing agent are Samuel Adams, P. W. Keller and E. B. Young.

It is alleged that he is deficient as collector in the sum of $28,000, and that $10,000 would be required to settle his disbursing account, making a total defalcation of $31,000. The deficiency was not known until his accounts were sent to Washington for revision when it became known.

FIRES DURING APRIL,

Forty-Three Fires During the Month—Losses—Insurance Paid up—Causes.

From the books of Fire Marshal Butler we glean that the total number of fires that have occurred in Allegheny county, from the first to the thirtieth of April inclusive, are forty-three, with a total loss of $64,119.50, and a paid up insurance of $36,337.50. This, however, does not cover the full sum insured for, there still being a large amount unadjusted and unascertained; many too were so slight as to make the ascertainment of damages impossible.

The most disastrous fires during the month were those at St. Bridget's Roman Catholic Church, Eleventh ward, the Allegheny High and Public School building, which ignited from the Church and the Carpenter Shop of Mr. Henry Mellon, in which he lost his life in trying to save his property.

CAUSES OF FIRES.

The origin of fires is as follows: Defective flues and burning chimneys, 16; supposed incendiarism, 4; communicated from adjoining buildings, 9; explosion of fluid and burning oil; 3 explosion of alcohol, 1; accidental, 4; struck by lightning, 1; from hot journal 1; from an oven, 1; from a still, 1; from a leak in an oil still, 1; stove, 1; false, 1; Total, 43.

A NEW BRANCH.

Enterprise of the Connellsville Railroad Company.

The completion of the Connellsville Railroad seems to have infused the managers of the line with even greater energy, and they are engaged now in urging the construction of branch lines, which shall be tributary to the main road and add to its business and prosperity. Already plans have been prepared for several of these branches, among which is a short line extending from Nine Mile Run, as it is called, over the country to the mouth of Negley's Run, on the Allegheny river. This branch will be but a few miles in extent, and passes through a rich mineral district, which it is proposed to develop. It passes through the lands of James Swisheim, Philip Frodish, George H. Dravo, J. W. Woodwell, Geo. W. Keifer, John H. Jamison, Jno. J. Walker, and that of the heirs of the late Judge Wilkins.

Work will be commenced as soon as possible, and as a preliminary step the papers were filed in the Court of Common Pleas yesterday asking for the appointment of viewers by the Court on the right of way. The Court appointed Messrs. Geo. H. White, John Mackin, James Benney, Jr., John Fleming and George Wilson, and fixed Wednesday, May 24, as the time for their meeting.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY BUILDING

The Late Fire—Spontaneous Combustion the Cause—Opinion of the Fire Marshal and Scientists.

Below we present the result of Fire Marshal Butler's investigation, assisted by scientific men, as to the origin of the recent fire at the Young Men's Mercantile Library Building. It speaks for itself:

ORIGIN OF THE FIRE AT LIBRARY HALL.

From a careful investigation of the circumstances connected with the fire which occurred at Library Hall, on the evening of the 23d April last, I am of the opinion that it originated from the spontaneous combustion of some waste material, such as cotton cloths, etc., that were used by the workmen whilst engaged in oiling and painting the interior of the building. These cloths, on becoming saturated with oil, and soiled from use, were thrown upon the floor and trodden under foot; and subsequently—as is with plausible reason supposed—swept with other rubbish into the spaces between the joists in the wash-room. Where the fire occurred, before the floor in that part of the building was laid. It is well known that such material is quite liable to spontaneous combustion. In this view of the matter I am supported by the opinions of scientific men, who have examined the premises and deliberated upon the conditions herein referred to.

The slight injury done to the building has been thoroughly repaired, and there is no reason to suppose that such an accident can, by any possibility, again occur.

JOS. A. BUTLER, Fire Marshal.
